TITLE I

CONSTITUTION OF THE GRAND COUNCIL

Section 1-1 POWERS AND DUTIES

The Grand Council of Utah operates under its own Charter and is a member of the General Grand Council Cryptic Masons International.

Section 1-2 TITLE

The name of this Grand Council shall be "The Grand Council Cryptic Masons of the State of Utah".

Section 1-3 SEAL OF THE GRAND COUNCIL

The Seal of the Grand Council Cryptic Masons of the State of Utah is illustrated below.

Section 1-4 JURISDICTION

The jurisdiction of this Grand Council shall be limited to the boundaries of the state of Utah, subject only to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah.

Section 1-5 LAWS AND REGULATIONS

It shall have the power to adopt and amend, by two-thirds vote of those present and voting, a Constitution not inconsistent with the Code of the Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah, as may be necessary for the good of the Grand Council.

Section 1-6 NEW COUNCILS

It shall have the power to issue charters for new Councils of Cryptic Masons with the right to open and hold Councils of Royal and Select and Super Excellent Masters, also to revoke, suspend or annul the same as the emergency of the case may require.

Section 1-7 ASSESSMENTS

It shall possess authority to require from the several Councils within its jurisdiction, such proportion of the sums received by them for conferring the degrees, and also such sums in the form of annual dues from the respective members, as may be necessary for the support of the Grand Council. For current amount, refer to last date on this subject in Title V Standing Resolutions.

Section 1-8 GENERAL POWERS

This Grand Council shall have exclusive control and government of all the Councils of Cryptic Masons within the limits of this jurisdiction.

Section 1-9 CONTROVERSIES

It shall have power to assign the limits of jurisdiction of Councils within its own jurisdiction, and settle all controversies that may arise between them.

Section 1-10 REPORTS

The Grand Council, at its annual Assembly, shall review and consider all the official reports of its officers, and the proceedings of its constituent Councils for the preceding year.

Section 1-11 ACCOUNTS

It shall examine the accounts of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Recorder, and supervise the state and condition of the finances, and adopt such measures in relation thereto, as may be necessary to increase, secure and preserve the same, and also to insure the utmost punctuality on the part of every accounting officer in the safekeeping and paying over of the funds and property of the Grand Council.

Section 1-12 AMENDMENTS

The Grand Council, upon the concurrence of two-thirds of its members present and voting at any Annual or Special Assembly, may revise, amend and alter this Constitution, provided, however, that a written copy of the motion so to amend or alter shall be filed with the Grand Secretary of the Grand Council at least forty-five (45) days before the Assembly, at which such motion is to be considered, and presented by the Grand Secretary to the Grand Council for consideration. Thirty five days before the Grand York Rite Session a copy thereof shall be inserted in the Notice of the Assembly and sent to all Grand Council Officers, Past Grand Elected Officers and Secretaries of Constituent Councils.

TITLE II

The first three (3) together with the Treasurer and Recorder shall be elected by ballot and the others shall be appointed by the Illustrious Grand Master.

(B) All Most Illustrious Past Grand Masters
All Right Illustrious Past Deputy Grand Masters
All Right Illustrious Past Grand Principal
Conductors of the Work, of this Grand Council, so long as they remain in good standing of Councils in good standing under this jurisdiction.

(C) The Illustrious Master
The Deputy Master, and
The Principal Conductor of the Work in good standing under this Grand Council.

(D) All Past Illustrious Master of Councils under this Grand Council, and such Past Illustrious Masters as may have demitted from another jurisdiction and who shall have been elected to membership by any Council in this Grand Jurisdiction, so long as they remain members of Councils under this jurisdiction.

(E) All Illustrious Companions of other Grand Councils who have been elected Honorary Members. Such membership shall not confer the right to vote.

(F) Each officer and member of the Grand Council must be a member of some Council within its Jurisdiction and, with the cessation of such membership, shall cease his office and membership in the Grand Council.

Section 2-2 TITLES

The honorary title of a Grand Master of Cryptic Masons is Most Illustrious and the official title is Grand Master. The official title is Deputy Grand Master, Grand Conductor of the Work,

Grand Treasurer, and Grand Recorder and the honorary title is Right Illustrious. The honorary title of the rest of the officers of a Grand Council is Illustrious.

Section 2-3 ASSEMBLY

Amended May 2006 and May 2023

(A) The Annual Assembly of this Grand Council of Cryptic Masons of the State of Utah shall be held during the Annual Sessions of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Utah who convene on the Second Friday and the following Saturday in May. The Time and Place of the next Annual Assembly shall be determined during these sessions.

(B) The Sessions will be opened by the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Utah (starting in 2024) then rotated each year in turn with the Grand Chapter, Grand Council and Grand Commandery.

Section 2-4 SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

Special Assemblies may be called by the Grand Illustrious Master, or in his absence or disability, by the Deputy Grand Master, or other presiding officer for the time being, whenever the welfare of the craft shall require it. Every Constituent Council must receive notice of a Special Assembly which shall state the object so far as is proper to be written. No business shall be transacted at a Special Assembly except that specified in the original notice or summons.

Section 2-5 QUORUM

A quorum shall consist of nine (9) members entitled to vote therein, including an officer authorized to convene the same, provided three or more Councils are represented.

Section 2-6 RULES OF ORDER

Rule 1: When the Grand Council has assembled, the Grand Recorder shall call the roll and if a constitutional number of members are present, the Grand Council shall be convened.

Rule 2: After the roll call, the proceedings of the preceding Assembly shall be read by the Grand Recorder, unless their reading is dispensed with; the Grand Master shall announce the standing and session committees, to whom all papers then in the hands of the Grand Recorder, requiring such reference, shall at once be referred; the reports of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master,

Grand Principal Conductor of the Work, Grand Recorder, and Grand Treasurer shall then be presented and appropriately referred, in the order named.

Rule 3: After the business of the Assembly is thus begun, the regular order of each session during its continuance shall be as follows:

1st - Reading of the minutes of the last session.

2nd - Reception and action upon, or reference of petitions, memorials and appeals.

3rd - Reports of Standing and Session Committees, and action thereon, the Committee on Jurisprudence having the preference.

4th - Motions, resolutions and other business.

Rule 4: All reports, petitions, memorials or appeals presented shall be in writing and in triplicate and shall be read before any action is taken thereon.

Rule 5: No motion to reconsider shall be entertained unless made during the same session when the question proposed to be reconsidered was decided and unless offered by one who voted with the majority upon the question.

Rule 6: When the day and hour shall have been named for the election of Grand Officers, such election shall, at that time, take precedence over all other business, unless the Grand Master, by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, shall otherwise direct. The final report of the Committee on Credentials shall be read before balloting proceeds.

Rule 7: At every Assembly all questions shall be determined by a majority vote of those present and voting. In case the votes are equally divided, the presiding officer shall cast the deciding vote.

Rule 8: Whenever the Illustrious Master, Deputy Master or Principal Conductor of the Works of the Constituent Council is unable to be present at the Annual Assembly of the Grand Council, each of them may appoint a member of such Council to represent them at the Annual Assembly and the proxy so appointed shall be entitled to all privileges of the Officer who so appoints him. Such Proxies shall on or before the first session of the day of the Assembly at which the proxy is to be used, file the same with the Grand Recorder or with the Committee on Credentials. If any one of the three officers first mentioned is present, he may, without a written proxy, vote for the absentees. If two are present, the highest ranking officer can vote for the absentee. Each of the Grand Officers for the time being, each Most Illustrious Past Grand Master, and Past Illustrious Master while a member of a Constituent Council shall be entitled to a vote while present; and each Constituent Council shall be entitled to three votes, subject, in each case to the regulations and by-laws adopted by this Grand Council.

Rule 9: These rules may be suspended and may at any time be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Rule 10: Robert's "Rules of Order Revised" will govern the parliamentary procedure, if not contrary to the laws of this Grand Council.

Rule 11: Charters shall be granted only by the Grand Council at its Annual Assembly.

Section 2-7 THE GRAND ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER

The Grand Illustrious Master shall have and enjoy the rights and prerogatives conferred by the Constitution, usages and custom of the craft, and all other powers conferred by the By-laws, edicts and decisions of this Grand Council.

(A) At each Annual Assembly of the Grand Council, the Grand Master shall present his Annual address, giving an account of his official acts during recess and the condition of Cryptic Masonry in this jurisdiction and recommend to the Grand Council such measures as he may deem necessary and expedient. A copy of this address shall be placed in the hands of the Committee on Reports of Grand Officers, at least ten days before the Annual Assembly.

Any recommendations that would affect the Grand Council should be handled as a Resolution with the proper time limitations for submission as all other proposals and resolutions.

(B) He shall appoint all committees and all officers not elected, and shall fill all vacancies which may occur in any of the elective offices, to serve during the pleasure of the Grand Illustrious Master, or until their successors shall have been elected and installed. The office of the Grand Master is never vacant.

C) He shall have the power and authority during the recess of the Grand Council, to grant or reject Letters of Dispensation. Any such Dispensation shall be in force no longer than the next Annual Assembly of the Grand Council. He also has the command of all other Grand Officers touching their official duties, and may claim their assistance at any time on matters pertaining to the Craft.

(D) He may during the recess of the Grand Council, arrest the Charter or, Dispensation of a Constituent Council, or suspend from the functions of his office any officer of the Grand Council or of a Constituent Council, but in no case shall such suspension affect the standing in the Order of such officer or his membership in the Council. The Grand Master shall report his action in full to the next Assembly of the Grand Council for its final action.

(E) He may convene the Grand Council, visit and/or preside in any Council within the jurisdiction of the Grand Council and give such instructions and directions as the good of the Craft may require, to maintain a strict conformity to the established customs and laws of the craft.

(F) He may from time to time appoint Past Grand Illustrious Masters, officers of the Grand Council or Past Illustrious Masters to represent this Grand Council within sister Grand Jurisdictions, such appointees shall be known as Grand Representatives and serve at the pleasure of the Grand Master or until a successor is appointed.

(G) He may recommend to the Grand Masters of sister Grand Jurisdictions, eligible residents of this jurisdiction for appointment as Grand Representative near this Grand Council. If such appointees fail to attend three Annual Assemblies and are not excused by the Grand Master, a replacement shall be recommended

(H) He shall see that the Grand Recorder and Grand Treasurer promptly discharge the specific duties enjoined upon them, as well as those duties as are traditionally appropriate to their respective stations.

(I) The following Session Committees shall be appointed by the Grand Master to serve at each Annual and some Special Assemblies as noted, (S).

Amended May 1994

The Grand Treasurer shall safely keep all moneys and property of every kind which shall be placed in his hands by the Secretary, or by an order of the Grand Council, and give proper receipts therefore.

He shall attend all Assemblies of the Grand Council and make a report at each Annual Assembly (or when requested to do so by the Grand Illustrious Master) of the receipts, disbursements and financial condition of the Grand Council.

He shall pay all drafts ordered by the Grand Illustrious Master and/or any lawful warrants or statements duly attested by the Grand Secretary.

He shall keep a book or books which shall contain statement of his receipts and disbursements on account of the Grand Council.

He shall carefully preserve and render, from time to time, an inventory of all property belonging to the Grand Council entrusted to his keeping.

At the expiration of his term of office, the Grand Treasurer shall turn over to his successor all funds, records and other property belonging to the Grand Council

Section 2-12 THE GRAND RECORDER

The Grand Recorder shall attend the Assemblies of the Grand Council and record its proceedings. He shall receive all funds belonging to the Grand Council, pay them over to the Grand Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. He shall receive and preserve all returns from Constituent Councils, and make reports thereon at each Annual Assembly. He shall also preserve all petitions, applications and other documents of importance, sign, certify and seal all documents emanating from the Grand Council, and conduct the correspondence of the Grand Council, under the direction of the Grand Master. He shall report annually to the several Grand Councils in correspondence with this Grand Council the names and addresses of the elected Grand Officers. At each Annual Assembly he shall make a complete report of all money received and expended, failure on the part of Constituent Councils in making returns and paying dues as required, and such other matters as may require attention of the Grand Council. He shall at least 30 days in advance of the Annual Assembly furnish each Constituent Council with blank return forms and instructions for preparing them properly. He shall also forward to a council under dispensation blanks for making returns and petition for charter. He shall be custodian of the Rituals belonging to the Grand Council and distribute them according to the regulations. At the expiration of his term of office, the Grand Recorder shall turn over to his successor all funds, records and other property belonging to the Grand Council.

Section 2-14 SURETY BOND

The Grand Treasurer and Grand Recorder shall furnish Corporate Surety Bond in such form and sum as the Grand Council may direct, said Surety Bond to be retained in the custody of the Grand Recorder. The cost of said Bond shall be paid by the Grand Council.

Section 2-15 OTHER OFFICERS

A. All other officers are hereby required to attend all the Assemblies of this Grand Council, and to faithfully discharge the duties required in their charge of Installation, prescribed by the By-laws, and perform such duties as by ancient usage and custom pertain to their respective office.

B. The Grand Lecturer shall have charge of and shall impart the authorized work of this Jurisdiction to the officers and members of the Constituent Councils as found necessary. At each Annual Assembly he shall make a report of his official acts, together with such particulars and recommendations as he may deem necessary for the interest of the Craft.

Section 2-16 TENURE OF OFFICE

All officers of the Grand Council shall be installed annually, and shall perform their respective duties until their successors in office are duly elected and installed. No officer shall be installed by proxy. Installation may be in a Constituent Council by any Illustrious Past Master. Installations may be in public or tyled meeting. Proper ceremony must be adhered to according to type of installation.

Section 2-17 ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE

1. Only members in good standing of a Constituent Council of this jurisdiction and a resident of the State of Utah are eligible to any office in the Grand Council.

2. Only members who have been elected, installed and presided over a regular Council of Cryptic Masons shall be eligible for election or appointment to any office in Grand Council.

3. The Grand Illustrious Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Principal Conductor of the Work, Grand Treasurer, and Grand Recorder shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Assembly of the Grand Council, from among the Companions who are eligible thereto. All other officers shall be appointed by the Grand Master.

4. In case of death or inability to act as the Grand Illustrious Master, the powers and duties of his station shall, for the time being, devolve upon the Deputy Grand Master and Grand Principle Conductor of the Work in the order named.

Section 2-18 APPEALS

An appeal may be taken to Grand Council by a Companion or Constituent Council at the next Annual Assembly, but not unless written notice thereof shall have been filed with the Grand Recorder, within thirty days after the conclusion of the trial or decision of suspension or expulsion. Such appeals or notice of appeals along with Trial records, affidavits and all papers pertaining to said action will be transmitted promptly to the Committee on Grievance and appeals. The steps and procedures of the Grand Lodge F.& A.M. of Utah will be closely followed along with the forms for appeals with changes made to coincide with Grand Council of Cryptic Masons language.

Section 2-19 FINANCES

Each Council may set their dues and fees as prescribed by the membership, in their By-laws, provided such dues and fees shall not be less than the annual per capita due the Grand Council.

The dues and fees of Councils having concurrent jurisdiction need not be the same.

The revenue of the Grand Council shall be derived from fees and dues charged as follows:

(A) For a Dispensation to form a New Council, Fifty ($50.00) Dollars.

(B) For each Royal and Select Degree conferred, Two Dollars ($2.00) to be paid by the Council of which the candidate receiving the Degree shall thereupon become a member, provided that no fee shall be due the Grand Council for courtesy work done for Councils outside of Utah.

8) Each Constituent Council shall remit to the Grand Council, at the time of making the Annual Returns, the assessed dues for each Companion who was a member at the close of the fiscal year.

For current amount, refer to last date on this subject in TITLE V Standing Resolutions.

(D) For the Triennial Fund, the assessed amount, on the latest date as referred to in TITLE V Standing Resolutions.

(E) Such special assessments and fees as the Grand Council shall levy.

Section 2-20 REMISSION OF DUES

A Council may remit all or any part of the dues of any of its members; provided, that Grand Council dues shall be paid by each Council upon all of its members.

Section 2-21 TRIENNIAL FUND

The Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Principle Conductor of the Work, and Grand Recorder shall share in the Triennial Fund assets to defray their expenses to the Grand Council Triennial.

In no case shall any one of these be paid more than Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($350.00) for any one Triennial.

Section 2-23 UNIFORM

Amended May 2005

The Uniform of the Grand Council shall be the black trousers with no cuff, white shirt, black tie, black shoes/boots, and purple dress coat with the broken triangle insignia over the left pocket.

Section 2-25 AMENDMENTS

All proposed amendments to the Laws relating to Grand Council shall be submitted in writing to the Grand Recorder at least forty five days before the next Annual Assembly. At least THIRTY FIVE days before such Annual Assembly of Grand Council the Grand Recorder shall transmit to the Grand Council Officers, Past Grand Elected Officer and Recorders of the several constituent Councils of this jurisdiction, and to the members of the Jurisprudence Committee of Grand Council, copies of any such proposed amendments.

All proposed amendments shall first be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence for its opinion and report. Any proposed amendment, ruled by the Committee on Jurisprudence to be "not" in proper form, shall not be placed upon the floor of the Annual Assembly of the Grand Council, for vote, until said amendment shall have been put in proper form. Responsibility for "Proper Form" shall be with the author of the amendment.

The Committee on Jurisprudence shall advise the author, or authors, of proposed amendments, prior to the Annual Assembly, if such amendments are "not in proper form". After "proper form" is satisfied, if the amendment is then approved in Annual Assembly by a majority of the votes, then such amendment shall become effective. Grand Council may suspend the forgoing provisions by two-thirds vote at the Annual Assembly or a Special Assembly called for such Purpose.

Section 2-26 REFERENCE TO CODE OF GRAND LODGE

Any item or items not covered herein by these By-Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council including the subjects of Masonic discipline and Councils under dispensation, shall be governed by the requirements of the Code and Trial Code of the Grand Lodge, F. & A.M. of Utah and Masonic usage.

Section 2-27 STATUTES MUST BE AVAILABLE

Each Constituent Council shall own not less than three copies of the laws of the Grand Council Cryptic Masons of Utah. One each shall be furnished the Illustrious Master, Deputy Master, and Recorder at the time of installation, together with a copy of the By-Laws of the Council.

Each Council shall own or have access to a copy of the Code of the Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah.

A copy of said proceedings shall be sent to Grand Council Officers, Dias Officers of Local Council and the Office of each Council. The above mentioned Proceedings will be at no cost to those receiving them.

TITLE III
REGULATIONS RELATING TO CONSTITUENT COUNCILS

Section 3-1 OF WHOM COMPOSED

A Council consists of the following officers:

The Illustrious Master
The Deputy Master
The Principal Conductor of Work
The Treasurer
The Recorder
who shall be elected annually by ballot, and
The Captain of the Guard
The Conductor of the Council
The Steward
The Chaplin
The Marshal
The Sentinel

who shall be appointed annually by the Illustrious Master. No companion shall hold any two offices at the same time, except Recorder and Treasurer. A council may also elect a board of Trustees in such manner and terms as provided in its By-laws.

Section 3-2 DISPENSATION

A petition to the Grand Master for Special Dispensation shall set forth the emergency. No fee shall be charged.

(A) The Grand Master is authorized, at the request of a Council, to change by dispensation its location or place of meeting. After such request has been granted, the membership should be notified not less than fifteen (15) days prior to said change in meeting date.

Section 3-3 FEE FOR CONFERRING DEGREES

Within the jurisdiction of the Grand Council the several degrees of Royal Master, Select Master and Super Excellent Master shall be conferred for not less than $25.00 which shall accompany the petition, or be paid by the candidate in such sums as may be required by the by-laws of the Council.

(A) A Council, with the approval of the Grand Master, may without fee, confer the Super Excellent Master's Degree upon a petitioner for affiliation, or upon a visitor who was made a Royal and Select Master in a jurisdiction which does not confer this degree.

Section 3-4 ASSEMBLIES

(A) The stated Assemblies of every Council within this Jurisdiction shall be held at least four times a year at such place and hour as may be specified in its Charter or designated in its By-Laws.

(B) Any Council failing to hold at least one Assembly for 12 months or fails for 24 months to make returns or pay dues, forfeits all of its rights as a Council; whereupon its Charter, with all of its property and effects, shall be surrendered to the Grand Master subject to the order of the Grand Council.

(C) Special Assemblies may be called by the Illustrious Master at his discretion, but no business shall be transacted at such called Assemblies except for the conferring of the Degrees on a candidate previously elected, or that which is specified in the notice or summons.

Section 3-5 QUORUM

A quorum of a Council consists of five (5) members entitled to vote therein, including an officer authorized to open the same, for the purpose of conducting business. A Council that is being formed, or conferring the degrees would require nine (9) members entitled to vote and an officer entitled to open the same to meet the quorum requisite.

Section 3-6 JURISDICTION

Each of the several Councils in this jurisdiction shall have concurrent jurisdiction with every other Council.

(A) That Council first receiving a petition for the degrees or affiliation shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the petition and the petitioner until such petition shall be acted upon.

Section 3-7 ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Amended May 2016

The election of officers of a Constituted Council shall be held annually at the stated assembly provided in its bylaws. The Installation of Officers then elected and appointed may be held in a tyled assembly or public installation program that shall take place on or before St. John the Evangelist Day unless by special dispensation.

Section 3-8 SUCCESSION IN OFFICE

In the absence of the Illustrious Master, Deputy Master, and Principal Conductor of the Work, a council may be opened for business and/or work, by the junior Past Illustrious Master present.

Section 3-9 SPECIAL ELECTION

If a vacancy shall occur in any of the offices, except when there is a right of succession, the Grand Master may authorize a special election to fill such vacancy upon written request to that effect by the Council.

Section 3-10 THE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER

(A) The Illustrious Master has it in special charge to see that the By-Laws and Regulations of the Council are duly observed, as well as the Constitution, Laws, and Regulations of the Grand Council, that accurate records are kept and just accounts rendered and that regular returns are made to the Grand Council annually and that the dues are paid promptly.

(B) The honorary title of the presiding head of a Council is Illustrious and the official title is Master.

(C) It is his duty, together with the Deputy Master and Principal Conductor of the Work to attend the Annual Assembly of the Grand Council; and it is the duty of these officers to attend the Assemblies of their Council.

(D) It is his duty and obligation as Master of a Constituent council to open, conduct and close his Council in accordance with the Regulations and Ceremonies adopted by this Grand Council.

(E) It is clearly the duty of the Illustrious Master of a Council to suspend from office any officer of his Council for unbecoming or un-Masonic conduct, in advance of charges and trial for the same.

Section 3-11 TREASURER

The Treasurer shall perform such duties as are prescribed by the Constitution Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council and the By-Laws of the Council.

Section 3-12 RECORDER

(A) It is the duty of the Recorder to issue notice of Stated and Special Assemblies; and, in the notices for Special Assemblies, he shall, under the direction of the Illustrious Master, state the particular business to be transacted.

(B) He will also issue summons when directed by the Illustrious Master or Council.

(C) To record all transactions of the Council.

(D) To collect all dues and to use every effort to prevent delinquency. When the dues of any member are delinquent for two years or more, the Council may direct the Recorder to notify the delinquent Companion of such fact, and also cite him to appear at a Stated Assembly of the Council, fixing the date (which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service) and show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues. The service of such notice may be personal, that is, by delivery to him of a copy, a statement of which service shall be endorsed on the notice and returned to the Council duly signed by a Companion. Or such service may be by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, sent by the Recorder. The service is completed when the Companion receives the copy or when the certified letter is duly mailed, addressed to the delinquent at his last known place of residence. In case of service by Certified Mail, the Recorder shall make a report thereof to the Council at the next Stated Assembly. In case of service by either method, the same must be entered of record. If the dues of the delinquent member continue unpaid, and he fails to appear, or appearing fails to show sufficient cause for remission (of which the Council shall judge), the Companion may be suspended by a majority vote of the Council. A Companion so suspended who pays his dues within one year thereafter shall be thereby reinstated without action of the Council. If such payment is made after one year, he can be reinstated by petition therefor and a majority vote of the Council. If the Council refuses reinstatement, dues so paid shall be refunded to the delinquent. Dues shall not be charged during suspension.

(E) To have in charge the Seal of the Council, and affix it to all papers requiring the same.

(F) To submit his books for examination whenever required to do so by the Council or by the Grand Council.

(G) To promptly transmit to the Grand Master and Grand Recorder copies of all the By-Laws and Regulations adopted by the Council.

(H) To transmit to the Grand Recorder, immediately after the Annual Assembly, a complete list of the elected and appointed officers with their mailing addresses.

(I) To transmit to the Grand Recorder by no later than January 15, of each year its Annual Returns, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Grand Council, covering the immediately preceding period January 1st to December 31st, both inclusive, together with all sums due the Grand Council.

(J) To see, at the Annual Installation of officers, that the newly installed Illustrious Master, Deputy Master, and Recorder have received or will receive from their predecessors, one copy each of the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council, and the By-Laws of the Constituent Council.

(K) To record in the minutes that the report of investigating committees on petitions was received.

Section 3-13 SURETY BONDS

Recorders and Treasurers of the Constituent Councils will furnish Corporate Surety Bonds in such form and sum as the Master may direct, said Surety Bond to be retained in custody of the Grand Recorder. The cost of said Bonds will be paid by the Council to the Grand Council.

Section 3-14 FEES

In each Council under the jurisdiction of the Grand Council of Utah, the fee of the Royal Master, Select Master and Super Excellent Master, shall not be less than Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00). The fee may not be remitted directly or indirectly.
